

SOCIETY

Announcement is made of the engagement of Mr. Francis Eames of Wahiawa, Oahu, to Miss Elizabeth Pattison, daughter of Maj. Harry H. Pattison.

Miss Pattison is now at the Presidio, Monterey, at the quarters of Maj. Pattison, who is at the Mexican border. She returned to her home there a few days ago after having spent nearly a fortnight as the guest of Mrs. E. C. Carey, wife of Capt. Carey, U. S. A., at the officers' mess at the Presidio, San Francisco. Miss Pattison spent most of the time at the smart shops purchasing her trousseau, and it is probable that the wedding will take place next month.

Maj. Pattison was stationed in San Francisco last year with the 1st Cavalry, and both he and his pretty daughter made many friends who will be interested in Miss Pattison's approaching marriage.

The marriage will take place in San Francisco.

Mr. Eames has countless friends in the islands who will welcome his bride when the young couple arrives. She is described as a girl of much beauty and charm, who will be an addition to local circles.

AN EVENING ON QUARANTINE ISLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Faxe and Miss Margaret Collins entertained on Wednesday evening with an informal card party and dance on Quarantine Island. After several hands at cards, dancing was the diversion of the assembled guests. It was found after counting up the scores that Miss Adele Wicke scored highest for the ladies and Mr. Low for the gentlemen, each receiving a box of correspondence paper. Then the company enjoyed the dance.

The rooms were pretty with baskets and bowls filled with different kinds of blooms. The party later motored to town by moonlight. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. W. James, Mr. and Mrs. J. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. F. James, Mr. and Mrs. William Raseman, Miss Margaret Lynn, Miss Maud Manning, Miss Hazel Haxim, Miss Adele Wicke, Miss E. Vogel, Mrs. Pearl Josephson, Miss Ruth James, Miss L. Ferguson, Mr. R. Taylor, Mr. George Collins, Mr. Burdick, Mr. Emerson, Mr. A. Trolei, Mr. Harold Morgan, Mr. Rolla K. Thomas and Mr. Low.

MRS. AND THE MISSES KRUSI ENTERTAIN

Honolulu's smart set members, who met the Misses Marly and Priscilla Krusi when they visited here some months ago, will be interested in the following from the San Francisco Chronicle:

"OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 6.—Quite the most brilliant social function of the early fall season was given this afternoon at the Claremont Country Club by Mrs. Herman Krusi and her two daughters, the Misses Marly and Priscilla Krusi. From 4 until 6 o'clock the ballroom at the clubhouse was crowded with members of the smart set from both sides of the bay and furnished an effective setting for the beautifully gowned matrons and girls. The ballroom was transformed into a bower of flowers and ferns for the occasion and the hostesses, with the members of the receiving party, stood in a corner against a background of golden-colored blossoms and tall.

Mrs. Edward M. Watson, popular society matron who left a few days ago with Justice Watson and their small daughters for a mainland visit.

graceful palm branches. Mrs. Krusi wore a gown of black net embroidered in iridescent beads and Miss Marly Krusi was gowned in tulle in the orchid shades. Miss Priscilla Krusi wore a dainty gown of canary-colored taffeta.

About 300 guests called during the afternoon and in the evening the members of the receiving party were entertained at a dinner after which an equal number of men came to the clubhouse for the dance.

PROMINENT SAN FRANCISCO SHIPPING MAN TO WED POPULAR GIRL

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—John H. Rosseter, one of the best-known shipping men of the Pacific Coast, will be married tomorrow in St. Mary's cathedral to Alice Gertrude May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William May, a pioneer San Francisco family.

Rosseter is manager of W. R. Grace & Co., vice-president of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and president of the Sperry Flour Company of this city. The bride-to-be is a member of an old San Francisco family.

The couple will visit Lake Tahoe on their honeymoon, leaving immediately after the wedding. Later on they will go to the Orient for a stay of several months. Returning, they will make their home, it is said, in the beautiful residence recently purchased by Rosseter here for his bride.

ISLAND GIRL POPULAR ON COAST

Of Miss Gwendolyn von Tempky of Maui, Town Talk of San Francisco says:

"Not in a long time has any girl visited us whose beauty and accomplishments made so great an impression as Miss Gwendolyn von Tempky, who came here from the Hawaiian Islands to visit the Jack Londons at their ranch in the 'Valley of the Moon.' Miss von Tempky is not only exceedingly beautiful, but also an accomplished horsewoman and swimmer, and her superb feats in the saddle and in the water excited the admiration of the house party at the London place in Sonoma county. Miss von Tempky's father is the manager of the great Baldwin cattle ranch on Mount Haleakala, and she has been riding since infancy. Her grandfather was the Polish Count von Tempky who went to Honolulu in the days of King Kalakaua. The Londons met the von Tempkys when they visited the islands on the Snark. Miss Tempky went home Tuesday on the Manoa."

Regrets have been expressed by the numerous friends of Maj. and Mrs. Francis Pope that the former has been ordered to Fort Sam Houston. Mrs. Pope will leave shortly for Walla Walla, where she will visit her parents, former United States Senator George Willard and Mrs. Willard.

Mrs. Pope met her husband in Washington, D. C., shortly after her graduation from one of the fashionable schools in the East. After their marriage Maj. Pope went abroad, where he was military attache in France for two years.

Maj. Pope and his charming wife have endeared themselves to Californians during their residence at the Presidio, and their home has been the center for much social activity.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Maj.-Gen. and Mrs. J. Franklin Bell gave a dinner Wednesday evening at Fort Mason in honor of Capt. and Mrs. Charles H. Bridges, U. S. A., who are expecting to be ordered to another station within a short time. The guests at the dinner included Capt. and Mrs. Bridges, Maj. and Mrs. E. M. Humphrey, Mesdames E. Pittman, H. Hazard, J. J. Moore, Elizabeth Pratt, George C. Marshall, Misses Mary Brinkley, Grace Buford and Capt. Morris E. Locke. Miss Buford is a niece of Mrs. Bell. Maj.-Gen. and Mrs. Bell also gave a dinner last Sunday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Cameron of Waco, Ariz. Among the guests were Capt. Morris E. Locke and Miss Mary Erskine.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Arriving here recently from Honolulu en route to San Diego, Maj. and Mrs. E. B. Gose, while here were the guests of Mrs. Gose's sister, Mrs. J. Duncan Elliot at the Presidio.

Mrs. Gose and another sister, Miss Perley Lincoln, were the complimented guests at a tea given last week by Mrs. Elliot.

Maj. and Mrs. Gose, who are popular army people, left several days ago for San Diego. Miss Lincoln, who has been the guest of Capt. and Mrs. Elliot, will leave soon for New York.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mrs. Stanley Taylor, who left yesterday for her home in Honolulu, was the inspiration for a delightful dinner, given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Highley. The private dining-room of the Cecil Hotel was the setting for the affair, and covers were arranged for the following guests: Judge and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. Stanley Powell, Miss Blanche Highley, Messrs. Anson, Norbet and John O'Brien.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Miss Dorothy Prosser and her mother are expected home next week from Honolulu, where they have been passing the summer.—Portland, Ore., Telegram.
